

Media Report January 29 – February 4, 2010

CityBizList, Dbusiness News, and Lawfuel:

January 29: Announcement re: Christina Gattuso's appointment to the Board of Directors of the William E. Doar Jr. (WEDJ) Education Foundation.

DBusiness New and Lawfuel:

January 29: Announcement re: Gary Bronstein's role as a lead panelist at the Sterne Agee's 5th Annual Financial Symposium on February 9 – 10.

Main Justice:

January 29: "Perrelli, Cobell Lawyer Hopeful Congress Will Meet Deadline," Keith Harper quoted re: pending legislation required to finalize a settlement in the historic Cobell case.

Atlanta Journal-Constitution:

January 30: "Decatur pub changes name to avoid lawsuit," Bill Brewster interviewed re: a trademark dispute involving the name of a local pub.

Atlanta Journal-Constitution:

January 31: "Healing behind apology," Miles Alexander and Elliott Levitas featured in article re: Jimmy Carter's recent "open letter to the Jewish community," which serves as a reconciliation/apology.

Law 360:

February 1: Patent Verdicts, Judgments Could Cool Off In 2010," Mitch Stockwell quoted re: whether last year's trend of some of the biggest judgments and jury verdicts in patents cases will continue into 2010.

Atlanta Journal-Constitution:

February 2: "George Brock Haley Jr., 83: Atlanta lawyer and mentor," Profile piece on George Haley re: his remarkable life and career at Kilpatrick Stockton. Michael Tyler quoted re: George Haley as his very influential mentor.