

Trademark, Copyright & Advertising

Brand Stewardship

Kilpatrick Townsends clients include innovative companies and brands in virtually every industry where brands drive business value. Our attorneys have enabled many of the world's leading brands to enter new markets, expand into new product categories, distribute through new channels, and maximize the value of their trademark and copyright portfolios. Strategic trademark management and protection have never been more important to business or presented more challenges for modern businesses. Our clients have the advantage of a team that understands the value of trademarks in today's marketplace, as well as the interplay of trademark and broader IP protection.

Approach

Value Delivered

We develop optimal approaches and achieve desired outcomes faster and more efficiently than our competitors. Our practice features a unique combination of diverse talent, issue-focused teams, and sophisticated systems for developing and managing portfolios. We collaborate with clients, foreign and local counsel, and other legal professionals from within our broader firm of more than 600 attorneys. Because our attorneys have handled every type of trademark numerous times across many industries, we don't waste time or effort. We quickly size up the situation and issues to deliver practical advice when it matters most. What's more valuable than that?
