Jordan Trent Jones is an experienced litigator, with a particular focus on intellectual property and complex technology disputes. He has extensive experience with patent infringement litigation and other intellectual property matters, including commercial, technology-related and copyright infringement litigation. Jordan also advises clients on intellectual property strategy and licensing, often in the context of litigation or settlement strategy. He represents companies in a variety of industries and has worked on litigation matters in multiple venues, including California, Colorado, Delaware, Texas, Virginia, and others. Jordan has also represented clients in arbitration and in investigations pending before the U.S. International Trade Commission. The majority of his technology experience has involved disputes related to electronics, semiconductor devices, semiconductor manufacturing, computer memory devices, wireless communications, computer hardware & software, and internet-related technologies. Jordan is also a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US), as certified by the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP). He helps clients identify and manage data privacy and information security risks and related legal obligations.

Jordan was recognized as a Northern California “Super Lawyer” in 2019 and the four years immediately preceding for Intellectual Property Litigation by Super Lawyers magazine.
