Want to Learn More About Fighting Negative CPARS Ratings, Privacy in Government Contracting, the Mandatory Disclosure Rule or Just Network with Government Contractors? Kilpatrick's Got a Webinar or M

The fall brings many nice things: cooler weather, beautiful leaves, and of course, the Government's fiscal year end. To those wondering where in the world Kilpatrick's government contracts attorneys have been (because they sure haven't been putting up blog posts), we've had our heads down plugging away at bid protests, contract funding issues, and debarment proceedings. Not to worry though, we've got many upcoming webinars and events to make sure you stay up to date with what's going in the world of government contracts:

- On Friday, November 10, 2017, at Federal Publications' Cybersecurity Institute in Tysons Corner, VA, Gunjan Talati & Chris Henel will present on what government contractors need to know about data breaches. You can read the full overview and register at <http://www.fedpubseminars.com/Cybersecurity-Institute-DC/Breach-Before-During-and-After-Best-Practices-and-Prevention-Strategies/#Overview>

(Please note that Federal Publications Seminars charges for this event.)

- On Tuesday, November 14, 2017, from 12-1 p.m. EST Gunjan Talati & Chris Henel are presenting a Federal Publications webinar on fighting back against negative CPARS reviews. This webinar will cover the basics surrounding CPARS procedures and review the current case law on fighting negative CPARS reviews and provide alternative strategies for dealing with negative CPARS review. You can read the full webinar description and register at <http://www.fedpubseminars.com/OnlineCourses/Webinars/CPARS-Fighting-Negative-Reviews/?id=258>. (This webinar is FREE.)
- On Tuesday, November 21, 2017, from 12-1 p.m. EST, Kilpatrick's Government Contracts and Data Privacy teams are going to team up to present Privacy in Government Contracts Involving Healthcare. The webinar will cover the basics of what laws like HIPAA and HITECH are intended to cover as well as best practices for internal compliance controls, subcontracting, and what to do in the event of a breach. You can read the full webinar description and register at <http://www.fedpubseminars.com/OnlineCourses/Webinars/Privacy-in-Government-Contracts-Involving-Healthcare/?id=259>. (This webinar is FREE.)

- On Thursday, December 7, 2017, from 11:30-1 p.m. EST, Gunjan Talati and CPT Scott Davidson USA (Ret.) from The GCO Consulting Group are teaming up to provide a webinar on the Mandatory Disclosure Rule. The focus of this webinar is for government contractors to understand the obligations regarding potential disclosures and how to develop compliance mitigation plans to help reduce risk in government contracting:
 - The Mandatory Disclosure Rule and Its Applications
 - The Mandatory Disclosure Rule Case Study (Unqualified Labor and Price Reductions Violation)
 - Internal audits and reviews (e.g. GSA Schedule compliance program audits)
 - Civil and Criminal Considerations in GOVCON
 - Suspension and Debarment: Best Practices and Protection You can read more about the webinar and register here: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/webinar-government-contractors-and-disclosure-requirements-tickets-39483432008> (The GCO Consulting Group is charging a nominal fee for this webinar.)

- On December 14, 2017, from 5-7 p.m. EST, Bourbiz, organized by The GCO Consulting Group, is back at Kilpatrick's Washington, D.C. office. This event is going to be a fun night of networking with celebrity meet and greets, auctions to support veteran charities, and good food and drink.
