Kilpatrick Townsend partner Gunjan Talati will present "Ethical Issues in Federal Government Contracting" at the Construction Law & Government Contracting Seminar on October 8-9, 2019 in Atlanta, GA. The presentation will cover standards of conduct, conflicts of interest, understanding the False Claims Act and recent developments, limiting exposure, and false statements and debarment.

Presented by The Seminar Group, this two-day program focuses on important topics in construction law and Federal government contracting. Attendees will have a unique opportunity to hear from attorneys and other professionals regarding recent trends and issues facing the construction industry, including the prosecution and defense of construction related claims as well as bidding upon and successfully performing government contract work.

The Seminar Group is offering attendees a faculty discount of $100 off registration price with the use of discount code FAC100.
