

Insights: Publications

Time To Reassess Your Patent Cooperation Treaty Strategy

Law360

September 3, 2020

Written by Karam J. Saab

When filing a Patent Cooperation Treaty, or PCT, application, an election must be made of an international search authority, or ISA.

The ISA, as the name suggests, searches for prior art relevant to the claimed invention and prepares the international search report, and written opinion ahead of the applicant electing the particular countries or regions for national phase entry.

Related People

Karam J. Saab

Partner

Denver, CO

t 303.405.1485

ksaab@kilpatricktownsend.com