The Silicon Valley Startup Model: What Is It and Why Is It So Successful?

Contra Costa County Bar Association, Intellectual Property Section

Thursday, March 21, 2019-

Silicon Valley has been an incubator for startups for over 50 years and over the course of those years, the model for forming and financing startup companies has been refined to near perfection. Today the standard formation and financing documents anticipate the issues and challenges that routinely arise in a new company – with founders who are often young, bright and just met each other. Please join Carole Bellis, Partner in the Silicon Valley office of Kilpatrick Townsend, incorporator of thousands of startups, who will walk you through the key considerations for founders and share some of the lessons she has learned along the way.
