Kilpatrick Townsend Expands Government Relations Practice in Raleigh

March 23, 2017

Firm Adds Amanda Donovan

RALEIGH (March 23) – Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today the addition of Amanda Donovan to the firm's Raleigh office. Ms. Donovan joins the firm as a Government Relations Analyst on the firm's Government Relations Team in the Corporate, Finance and Real Estate Department.

"We are excited to welcome Amanda to the firm and our growing North Carolina state legislative practice," said Rob Harmala, Kilpatrick Townsend Government Relations Team Chair.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Donovan was a Research Analyst at an AmLaw 100 firm. She helps clients achieve their government affairs goals through legislative monitoring, research, and advocacy. Ms. Donovan has a strong understanding of the state legislative process, and her experience spans a broad range of industry governmental issues, with a particular emphasis on healthcare and finance.

Ms. Donovan earned her B.S. in Business Administration from North Carolina State University.
