Join ACC Colorado and Kilpatrick Townsend for a webinar presentation by Kilpatrick Townsend attorneys Gunjan Talati and Patrick Njeim.

The regulatory world of export controls may seem far removed from many other types of practice. The truth however is that lawyers must know the basics of export controls especially as export control laws are evolving to catch-up with advancing technologies. The Government is more worried than ever about emerging and foundational technologies falling into the wrong hands. This presentation will provide “just the facts” on what attorneys need to know about export controls and this rapidly changing landscape

Note: This Zoom webinar is limited to 100 attendees.
