The New Federal Defend Trade Secrets Act (Enacted May 2016): What It Means for You and Your Company

Tuesday, June 28, 2016 -

Tuesday, June 28, 2016

On May 11, 2016, President Obama signed the Defend Trade Secrets Act, creating, for the first time, a federal cause of action and standards for civil trade-secret misappropriation. Join your fellow in-house counsel for a complimentary seminar and luncheon introducing the Act and discussing the practical implications for you and your company. The seminar is appropriate for general corporate counsel, intellectual-property counsel, and corporate executives.

Kilpatrick Townsend Partner Steve Gardner and Counsel John Moye will present and answer your questions.
