Maneesh Gupta Joins Medical & Mechanical Devices Team in Silicon Valley

August 12, 2015

MENLO PARK (August 12) – Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today the addition of Maneesh Gupta to the firm's Silicon Valley office. Mr. Gupta joins the firm as an associate in the Medical & Mechanical Devices Team in the firm's internationally recognized Intellectual Property Department.

Mr. Gupta focuses his practice on patent preparation, prosecution, and related counseling in a wide variety of mechanical, medical, electrical, and computer technologies. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Gupta was an associate at a patent law firm in Palo Alto, where he managed patent prosecution for a global medical device and supply company and provided strategic patent counseling regarding the entire patent portfolio of a clean energy startup company.

Mr. Gupta also has extensive experience representing clients in all phases of patent litigation including district court trials, Federal Circuit appeals, and U.S. International Trade Commission investigations. He earned a J.D. from Emory University School of Law. Mr. Gupta received his Bachelor of Science, cum laude, in Mechanical Engineering, from the University of Michigan.
