

Insights: Events

Construction Changes: An Industry Expert Imparts His Knowledge to GCs and Subs

American Subcontractors Association Metro Washington

Wednesday, October 23, 2019-

Hilton Alexandria Mark Center

REGISTER : <https://asamw.org/meetinginfo.php?id=155&ts=1565263348>

---

Paul Stynchcomb, author and expert in the construction industry, and Kilpatrick Townsend partner Larry Prosen will lead an all-day workshop on how to effectively manage and affect changes in all facets of the construction process, including scheduling, change orders, and pricing.

Topics covered will include:

- How to price change orders that have an impact on base contract work and the associated labor inefficiencies.
- The Project Manager's responsibilities associated with developing, reviewing, and responding to CPM Schedules, fragnets, delays, etc.
- An overview of the P/M's responsibility on how and when to write letters, emails, photos, etc. on day-to-day job related issues to satisfy the Subcontract notice provisions should the project end up in an adversarial position.
- How to prepare for a claim.
- Proven techniques in CPM scheduling and Contract Changes to protect your company.
- Expert advice on CPM Scheduling and Changes to the Contract.
- Taking your company to the next level.

Event Details

---

Wednesday, October 23, 2019

7:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Hilton Alexandria Mark Center

5000 Seminary Road

Alexandria, VA 22311

Related People

---

Lawrence M. Prosen

Partner

Washington, DC

t 202.481.9940

lprosen@kilpatricktownsend.com