Experience

Represented a man in litigation when a hot water heater explosion killed his wife and burned one of his sons.

Represented a man who suffered second and third degree burns in a product liability claim. The injuries occurred when a pressure washer lacking safety controls sprayed high pressure and high temperature water onto the man.

Represented a mother and her two young daughters in a product liability case against multiple defendants. The family's mobile home caught fire when a sofa made out of flammable material caught fire and emitted toxic smoke. The mobile home only had two exit doors, both located in the living room area where the sofa was located. One daughter suffered burns over 96% of her body and the other perished in the fire. The sofa's flammable material and the mobile home's lack of adequate exits and smoke detectors resulted in the injuries.

The case settled through mediation.

Served as counsel for an individual in a product liability action against a manufacturer of components for 4x4 vehicles. Our client became paralyzed after an accident involving the defendant's product. After extensive mediation a favorable settlement was obtained.

Represented in a personal injury and products liability suit a four year old child who was seriously burned when a flammable liquid product was ignited by a lit candle. The case settled through mediation.

Represented a nine year old girl seriously burned when an oil candle with an unguarded flame ignited her dress. The case settled through mediation.

Represented a truck driver injured when an asphalt silo malfunctioned, spilling molten asphalt into the truck cab and trapping the driver.

Represented a man injured when a beam being moved by crane operator came into contact with an overhead power line electrocuting the man. The case was settled through mediation.

Represented two children injured when acetone spilled from a non child-resistant container onto a kerosene heater causing an explosive fireball. Both children suffered severe burn injuries. The case settled through mediation.

Represented a Georgia hospital in medical malpractice litigation.
