Kilpatrick Townsend's Sarah Lowe Elected to the St. Andrew's-Sewanee School Board of Trustees

May 10, 2017

ATLANTA (May 10) -- Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today that partner Sarah Lowe was recently elected to the St. Andrews-Sewanee School (SAS) Board of Trustees for the term of 2017 – 2020.

SAS is an independent, non-profit, educational institution. The school is governed by the Board of Trustees comprised of 21 elected members with responsibility for policy-making and sound management as put forth in the school's by-laws. Trustees serve a three-year term. The Head of School, the President and Vice President of the Parents' Council, the President and Vice-President of the Alumni Council, the Bishop of the Diocese of Tennessee, and a member elected by the faculty serve as ex-officio Trustees. The Head of School serves as the chief executive officer of the school.

SAS is a private, coeducation, Episcopal, day and boarding, college preparatory school. Located on a beautifully wooded and historic campus high atop the Cumberland Plateau in Tennessee, SAS offers students in grades 6-12 an innovative curriculum presented by a creative and engaged faculty who are dedicated to cultivating well-rounded and thoughtful human beings.
