Fair workweek laws generally require large food and retail establishments to provide predictable work schedules and additional compensation for certain types of schedule changes and shifts. Due to the significant number of franchise businesses in the industries covered by these laws, understanding and complying with them is important for franchisors and franchisees alike.

Related People

Marc A. Lieberstein
Partner
New York, NY
t 212.775.8781
mlieberstein@kilpatricktownsend.com

Kathryn B. Shipe
Franchise of Counsel
Atlanta, GA
t 404.815.6517
kshipe@kilpatricktownsend.com

Desmond M. Dennis
Associate
Atlanta, GA
t 404.532.6977
ddennis@kilpatricktownsend.com