Triangle Business Journal Event

"Tomorrow's Real Estate — The Growth Story," Triangle Business Journal Event, July 2016.

It took commercial real estate a few years to get its sea legs back following the Great Recession.

Today, companies and individuals in the commercial and the residential real estate industries are posting record numbers — in terms of building projects, occupancy, lease rates, home values and perhaps most importantly, investment returns.

So, what's behind this growth and what can we expect in the future?

Listen to some of industry's top executives and researchers as they go behind the numbers with TBJ's Amanda Hoyle, and talk about upcoming opportunities.

Tomorrow's Real Estate — The Growth Story is THE destination for real estate pros who want to know trends and projections for the rest of the year.
