Myles McLeod is a Senior Project Manager with Kilpatrick Townsend's LitSmart E-Discovery Team. With more than 10 years of project management experience, he provides guidance to attorneys and clients on all phases of the EDRM, project planning, budgeting, and technical issues regarding e-discovery. Myles is a certified Relativity Master, having reached the levels of Relativity Certified Administrator, Relativity Certified User, Relativity Project Management Specialist and Relativity Assisted Review Specialist. In addition to Relativity, Myles is also an expert in IPRO, Concordance, Summation, LAW Pre-Discovery, West Case Notebook, and Clearwell. He is also a self-taught programmer in a number of computer languages including SQL, Perl, and Python. As a Relativity Certified User, Myles is often engaged to consult on the employment of Early Case Assessment strategies, analytics, and predictive coding technology as a way to create more efficient, streamlined document reviews. In addition, he has conducted dozens of data collections in large, highly sensitive matters and frequently assists clients with data mapping and preservation strategies. Myles is also a certified Project Management Professional (PMP) with the experience and expertise to manage cases from inception to closure.

Myles is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy (B.S. in Engineering) and Georgia State University (M.B.A.). Prior to joining Kilpatrick Townsend, Myles was a Lieutenant in the United States Navy where he amassed 1,000 flight hours, conducted 250 arrested carrier landings, managed a group of 30+ aircraft technicians, and served as an Electronic Warfare Tactics instructor. Myles was also an Assistant Professor of Naval Science in the NROTC Unit at Morehouse College. In addition, he previously held senior project management related positions within the telecommunications (AT&T, BellSouth and MCI) and ERP software (Convoy Corporation) industries.
