

Pro Bono

United For Justice

Pro bono legal services make a transformative impact on our communities, employees, and our business clients. Kilpatrick Townsend honors the legal profession's responsibility to serve individuals and organizations that ordinarily cannot afford representation even when basic rights and interests are at stake. We believe in a legal system that works for everyone, regardless of economic or social status. Our efforts to close the justice gap provide an excellent platform for our attorneys to develop their legal skills and engage with clients we might not otherwise encounter, making us better attorneys in the process.

Approach

Tailored Approach

Led by a dedicated, full-time pro bono partner, Kilpatrick Townsend's pro bono program leverages our world-class experience in intellectual property, litigation, and corporate law to best serve our communities. We actively forge pro bono collaborations with firm clients, such as Delta Airlines and Clorox, and nonprofit legal organizations in all U.S. offices, recognizing each community's unique legal needs. Through our participation in already-existing pro bono programs or by actively co-developing new programs tailored to a specific legal need, we have improved the lives of many, while periodically establishing new precedents and triggering headline news.
